Report

The final year students of the BA English Department had the privilege of participating in a comprehensive two-day Career Guidance Program on the 2nd and 3rd of February 2020. Held within their own classrooms, the program was expertly conducted by Ms. Reshma K and Ms. Nima A M, both renowned for their insightful approaches to career planning and development.

Throughout the sessions, the students were guided through the importance of setting personal goals, a crucial step in shaping their future paths. The facilitators emphasized how having clear, well-defined goals not only provide a sense of direction but also empowers individuals to navigate the complexities of their professional and personal lives with greater confidence. The program covered various strategies for self-assessment, identifying strengths, and aligning personal aspirations with career opportunities.

Ms. Reshma and Ms. Nima provided practical tips on goal-setting, breaking down long-term ambitions into achievable milestones. They also discussed how clarity of vision helps in making informed decisions and overcoming challenges that may arise along the way. Students were encouraged to reflect on their passions, skills, and the kind of impact they wish to make in their chosen fields.

The program fostered a supportive environment where students could ask questions and seek guidance on specific concerns regarding their future careers. Overall, the two-day event not only inspired students to take charge of their personal and professional development but also left them feeling more confident about pursuing their ambitions with a clear sense of purpose and determination.

Nature of the event	Career Guidance

Report

Introduction

On November 4, 2019, the Department of Commerce at Aloysius College organized a comprehensive career guidance session aimed at equipping students with essential knowledge and insights for their future careers. The event was conducted by the esteemed resource person, Dr. Libison K. B., who shared his expertise and experiences with the students.

Objectives of the Session : The primary objectives of the career guidance session were:

1. To inform students about various career options available in the field of commerce and related sectors.
2. To provide insights into the current job market and the skills required for different professions.
3. To help students understand the importance of planning their careers early on and making informed decisions.
4. To encourage students to develop essential soft skills that are vital for success in the workplace.

Overview of the Session

The session commenced at 1:15 PM, with a warm welcome from the head of the Department of Commerce, who introduced Dr. Libison K. B. to the audience. The auditorium was filled with approximately 400 enthusiastic students, eager to gain valuable insights into their future career paths.

Dr. Libison K. B. began his presentation by discussing the importance of career planning and the evolving landscape of job opportunities. He emphasized the necessity for students to explore various fields and to be proactive in their career development.

Key Highlights of the Presentation

- Diverse Career Options: Dr. Libison outlined several career paths within the commerce field, including finance, marketing, human resources, entrepreneurship, and e-commerce. He elaborated on the qualifications and skills needed for each domain.
- Job Market Trends: The resource person provided an overview of the current job market, highlighting emerging trends and sectors that are growing rapidly. He advised students to stay informed about these trends to better align their skills with market demands.
- Skill Development: Dr. Libison emphasized the importance of developing both hard and soft skills. He provided practical tips on improving communication, teamwork, and critical thinking abilities, which are essential for success in any profession.
- Networking and Internships: The session also covered the significance of networking and gaining practical experience through internships. Dr. Libison encouraged students to engage with professionals in their fields of interest and to seek internships to enhance their employability.

Interactive Q&A Session

Following the presentation, an interactive Q&A session was conducted, allowing students to seek clarification and advice on specific career concerns. Dr. Libison patiently addressed various queries, offering personalized guidance and encouragement to students.

Conclusion

The career guidance session conducted by the Department of Commerce was a resounding success, with active participation from the students. Dr. Libison K. B.'s insights and advice equipped the attendees with valuable information to help them make informed career choices. The event not only inspired students to explore diverse career options but also emphasized the importance of skill development and proactive planning for their future. The Department of Commerce plans to organize similar sessions in the future to further support students in their career journeys.

CAKE FEST AND SALE OF CHRISTMAS RELATED ITEMS

Title of the Programme	Cake Fest and Sale of Christmas Related Items
Organizing Cell/ Department	ED Club
Date	19-12-2019
Number of Students Benefitted	54
Nature of the Event	Entrepreneurship

Report

Date: 19-12-2019

Time: 10.30am to 2.30pm

As a part of ED club events, on 19-12-2019, we conducted a cake fest and sale of Christmas related products. The ceremony was inaugurated by Father Babu Paul by cutting the ribbon and then followed by a felicitation address by Dr. Pauly KV. He bought the first piece of cake in that ceremony.

From various departments, students contributed a variety of cakes, as well as Christmas related products. On behalf of those students, ED club members sold their items, almost all the cakes and other decorations sold out before the lunch break. For the best innovative cake (Nutty Bubble) we were given a cash prize.

A day before, as a part of Christmas celebration, we had taken orders for the cakes from the students and faculties. Those cakes have been delivered by ED club members to the faculties and students on this cake fest.
